The streets of wine

— Wine Tourism, Gastronomy and Culture

Drama is a picturesque city with rich natural environment and history, spreads below the peaks of Mount Falakro at an altitude of 110 m. Due to its central location in the prefecture, Drama is the base for excursions to wineries located a short distance around of. The wineries are easily accessible, impressive in design and size, with modern wine tourism infrastructure.

Wine tourism is highly developed and the wineries have special areas for reception, hospitality and tasting.

Drama is distinguished for its stock of flavors but also for cultural expressions, such as customary practices and events and the successful business activity in the field of wine and gastronomy.

”Drama

is a destination
for alternative tourism,
for lovers of wine,
nature and exploration. **”

KDETYD is a Scientific non-profit Association, founded in 2020, dealing with Innovating Activities in Education, Tourism, Health and Interculturality based in Drama, Eastern Macedonia, Greece but its activities are expanding so it can carry out educational programs, actions, counseling or training to all people without discrimination.

Wine Taste

Aftertaste of Culture

The Tasting of a wine is undoubtedly a very fascinating process, during which sight, smell and taste play a dominant role.

Visit to the winery, Guided tour of the winery and the Distillery, you will get to know the basic process of winemaking and you will try representative labels of the Estate.

- The participants in the program by taking part in the tasting, will have the opportunity to enjoy, recognize the characteristics and appreciate the unique flavors of Drama's wines and discern their tastes for wine.

- They will improve their knowledge of which type of wine use in recipes. They will also learn what kinds of foods matching each type of wine.

Through the program, visitors will have the opportunity to get know beyond the borders of wine the geographical diversity, the rich local architecture, the cultural and gastronomic tradition of our region. In addition, they will crate a wine tourism culture and look for specific wines where they return home, this favoring the global wine market and the sustainable development of destinations.
